3. How we use your information

- To register you and keep your account secure, including one-time passwords sent to your mobile or email.
- To show plot listings, prices, approvals and availability.

4. Who we share it with

We share the minimum necessary, and only with:

- Service providers who host and run the platform on our instructions — cloud hosting and database, SMS and email delivery, crash reporting. They may not use your data for their own purposes.
- The land owner or promoter of the parcel you book, and their legal representatives, where this is necessary to execute the sale agreement or registration.
- Professional advisers — advocates, chartered accountants, document writers — engaged for your transaction.
